

ROYAL COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO THE ATTACK ON CHRISTCHURCH MOSQUES

HOW YOU CAN HELP

As a result of the attacks on 15 March, 51 people lost their lives and many more were injured. The Royal Commission is looking at what, if anything, could have been done to prevent this attack and what could be done in the future to keep people safe.

If you have information that could help with its inquiry, the Royal Commission wants to hear from you.

- What worries you most about the safety of your community?
- What should government agencies be doing to keep us safe?
- What could be done differently to help prevent something like this happening again?

We'd particularly like to hear from:

- Muslim individuals, communities and organisations.
- People who due to their whakapapa, ethnicity, religion, interests or activities have experiences relevant to our inquiry.
- Current or former employees or contractors of relevant State sector agencies.

There are many ways you can share your information with the Royal Commission. Please contact us to find out more on 0800 222 987 or email info@christchurchattack.royalcommission.nz
